Congregational Meeting on August 29

Now Accepting Nominations

The congregation will vote on the 2010-11 Budget and the Board of Directors at the congregational meeting on August 29. The nominating committee asks all members to prayerfully consider serving in one of the two open Board positions, Vice President of Resource Management or Vice President of Church Life.

To learn more about these positions, pick up a copy of the job description in the church office or ask the current VP about the position (Shirley Block for Church Life and Gary Johnson for Resources).

The nominating committee would prefer nominations by August 2. Call them if you have any questions or if you are interested in serving. Committee members are Kathryn Norton, Paul Peterson, and Phyllis Royston.

Congregational Retreat is August 20-22

Come to the Congregational Retreat! It starts Friday evening, August 20 and ends after lunch on Sunday, August 22. The cost is $52.50 per adult. Youth and children 17 and under are free! Sign up soon on the entryway bulletin board so we can get a head count.

"The purpose of the retreat is to bond more closely as a church family," Chris Swanson told the Beacon. "The entire retreat center is reserved for the congregation, and we'll have access to the camp facilities, like boating and the climbing wall." Contact Chris Swanson at 342-9107 for more information.

Member Attends National Youth Gathering

This year, Beautiful Savior member Nate Spencer attended the National Youth Gathering in New Orleans, July 17-21. Nate went with the Friendship Celebration youth group to the event.

This year's event theme was "We Believe." NYG participants enjoyed speakers, performers, and activities, and were able to choose from 90 service projects. Offerings were expected to reach $150,000, according to the LCMS July press release. The city's convention and visitor's bureau reported that the event will "contribute some $42 million to local revenues." LCMS reported the attendance of 25,000 young people, chaperones, volunteers, guests and staff.

Day Camp Shakes Things Up!

By Sami Johnson

VBS was once again a great success! Thank you to the Camp Perkins staff for putting on an awesome program, and to all our wonderful Beautiful Savior volunteers who gave so much of their time and energy. It wouldn't have been a success without you. Nearly 50 children heard the Word of God through play, crafts, bible study, skits and song.

BSLC extends a welcome to our new members received in June, Betty Costello and Shirley Hammond.

Sunday School teachers are needed for the fall session. Contact Don Brigham at 375-3419 or the church office.

Youth Group Sells Concessions at Simplot Field

Our youth group sold hot dogs, hamburgers, soda and chips at Simplot Field on June 26 as a fundraiser and opportunity to make our church more visible. Wendy Graham coordinated the event with help from Wes Smith and Chris Swanson. We thank all the youth who manned the concession booth: Brett and Lauren Reeder, Abbie and David Tufts, Joy Graham, Ben Howell, and Tais Mitchell. We also appreciate grill masters Zach Allen, Colby Howell, and Leah Steinbronn. Paige and Sage Swanson made a poster for our table with literature about our church and faith. The youth received a donation for their work.

LWML Retreat

By Kay Kurtz

Over fifty women from the Utah-Idaho District met the weekend of July 17 at Camp Perkins for our annual retreat. Attending from Beautiful Savior were Gladys Johnson, Kathryn Norton, Sherrie Rumpeltes, Mary Smith, Arlene Warenko, Barb Young, Debbie Strause, Joni Granrud, Shirley Block, Sandy Edmondson, and Brandy, Sydney, and Audrey Berck. Pastor Ross Shaver led two wonderful Bible studies, "Body and Soul" and "A Healthy Person." The presentations on healthy living were well received. Friday evening snacks were healthy fruit smoothies, popcorn, pretzels, and grapes, and the ladies met for exercising on the deck each evening. Saturday was Teen Talent Night with young women from McCall and Caldwell entertaining. Our dear friend Cindy Wilson provided the comic relief. The ladies report a spiritually uplifting weekend in a beautiful setting created by our magnificent God with a lot of fun thrown in!

LWML Bake Sales a Success!

By Kay Kurtz

Thanks to all our wonderful bakers and to the generosity of the congregation, our first two "Brownies for a Bench" Bake Sales were so successful that we will not be having a third one. Special thanks to Sandy Edmondson and her daughter Brandy Berck and granddaughters Sydney and Audrey for sharing the cost of a new bench for the patio with us.

A Fun LWML Summer Project

By Kay Kurtz

Ray Ahrens' brother-in-law Bill Phinney is known as the Green Valley (AZ) Samaritan. He makes frequent trips to small villages on the west coast of Mexico delivering used household items and clothing that he has collected from his community for Mexican villagers in need. He also takes stuffed animals, tennis balls and dolls for the children. This month his trip will have a Beautiful Savior connection. At our May meeting, Carol Ahrens asked our ladies to help her make clothes for some dolls she had been given. Barb Young and I helped dress eight dolls and provided each doll with a change of clothes. It was a fun summer project!
